BRITISH AID IN PACIFIC

Ex-Representative Norris Poulson of California, Republican, returned from London recently and refused to be quoted in the press on what he had learned there about British aid to the U. S. A. against Japan.

Finally, confronted with the details of a conversation in which he had participated, Poulson admitted that he had discussed the Pacific war with two influential members of the British parliament.

"Just what sort of help can we expect from you people once Germany is knocked out?" Poulson asked them.

"Well, we've got an army of over 7,000,000 Indians," one of the two Britons replied. "You can have them."

"But you know perfectly well we cannot rely on them," Poulson said bluntly. "You'll be lucky if they don't fight against you; let alone fight for you against Japan."

The Britisher admitted he, too, was worried about the Indians, but added, "At any rate, there's a large army of Australians and New Zealanders."

"In other words," countered Poulson, "you people here on the island are going to pull out just as soon as you can, leaving to your colonials the responsibility for any aid we get in the Pacific."

"That's about right," was the reply. "We've had five years of war here. That's enough."

Note—Despite congressional concern, some high U. S. navy men are not enthusiastic about either British or Russian help against Japan. They feel U. S. forces can do the job themselves.

When the British wanted to send a naval force to cooperate with the American fleet in the Philippines, Admiral King objected and the President virtually had to overrule him.

BRITISH TROOPS PROTECT GREEKS

For some reason the news was suppressed in the United States, but a very significant event took place in Salonika, Greece, during the trouble between the British and the EAM-ELAS Greeks.

When the British ordered troops in Salonika to suppress the Greeks, the troops sided with the Greeks and refused to fire on them.

The troops were a garrison of the British Indian army. The Indians threw their weight on the side of the Greek organization which bitterly opposed the return of King George, and which Churchill claims to be communist. There was no rioting or bloodshed. The Indian troops simply cooperated with the Greeks.

Simultaneously Krishna Menon, secretary of the India league, made a speech in London attended by several members of the British parliament in which he praised the Indian troops in Salonika and said: "They go in their landlords' cars and vote against him."

The incident is considered extremely important not only as it effects Greece, but as it effects India and the Far East. General Stilwell, when in the Burma theater, was reported by U. S. Ambassador William Phillips as considering British-Indian troops mercenaries who would not put their hearts into any battle as long as India was not given its independence.

SECOND CALVIN COOLIDGE

In more ways than one, Harry Truman is like Calvin Coolidge. He comes from the same backwoods origin. He seldom makes speeches on the senate floor. He is thrifty, remembers the days when the drugstore paid him $3 a week.

But more than anything else Truman has the same brand of Coolidge political luck. The lightning hit Cal first during the Boston police strike, later when the party bosses in the smokefilled room at the Blackstone hotel wanted a good composite vice president to go with Harding.

The lightning struck Truman when his investigating committee hurtled him to fame, later when the Democratic bosses dining at the White House decided that he was the compromise candidate to replace Henry Wallace.

That is the man who has assumed the life insurance duties of vice president of the United States. He will be worth watching.

CAPITAL CHAFF

¶ When Allied troops entered a little Belgian town for the first time the local church warden climbed to the carillon tower of the church and the bells started to ring out "The Star-Spangled Banner." Next came "God Save the King" and, finally, "Swanee River."

¶ John Danaher of Connecticut, who failed of reelection to the senate in November, may get back here even though he lost out to Brien McMahon. Connecticut law requires a four-month notice before an election to replace the late Francis Maloney can be held, and Republican Governor Ray Baldwin may name Republican Danaher to serve in the interim, with Danaher also running in the election.

¶ Burma engineers have coined a new word to describe jungle trails. A fairly good trail is described as "jeepable."

SCOUTS, CUBS FEATURED ON SUNDAY, 11TH

Parents and the general public are cordially invited to an Anniversary Sunday meeting of Scouts and Cub packs from Moreland, Union, Cambrian, and Campbell districts, to be held in the Campbell Union Grammar School auditorium on Feb. 11, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

The program will include the sounding of assembly by Troop 34's bugler; presentation of colors, and pledge of allegiance to the Christian flag. This ceremony will be followed by posting of national colors and pledge of allegiance; posting of troop colors.

The address of welcome will be given by the district committee chairman, James W. Dent.

A prayer will be offered by the Rev. J. H. Bennett, and the Rev. Donald Baldwin will sing The Lord's Prayer (Malotte).

The anniversary message, "A Scout Is Reverent," will be delivered by Lieutenant Landeck, naval chaplain, San Francisco district.

Concluding the ceremony will be the Scout oath, Cubs and Scouts; "America the Beautiful," audience; benediction, the Rev. J. Ryan; taps, by a bugler.

Scouts Present Fine Program at Kiwanis Meeting

Boy Scout Troop 28, under Scoutmaster Arthur Tindall and sponsored by the Kiwanis club presented the program at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday.

Demonstrations were offered to show the proficiency and progress of the troop members. Their interesting and instructive program was enjoyed by the Kiwanians who expressed their pride in the boys, and their happiness in being able to aid them in their activities.

Tony Ferro acted as chairman.

Next week Robert Drexel of the district attorney's office will be the speaker, with Ethan Lanphear as chairman.

Production Credit Association Will Meet February 10

The San Jose Production Credit association will hold its 1945 annual meeting of stockholders at Eagles hall, 148 North Third street, San Jose, on Saturday, Feb. 10, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Two directors will be elected to fill the terms of Lloyd L. Edwards and J. E. Wiesendanger, whose terms expire, and one to finish the unexpired term of Herbert F. Dalton, resigned. Other directors include W. B. Mabie, president, and Stanley B. Smith.

Congressman J. Z. Anderson is notifying his constituents that he has changed his official frank and registration from "John Z." to "Jack Z." As he has been "Jack" to friends and acquaintances and to most of his public, there will be no transition to make.

Woman's Club Observes 40th Anniversary

Campbell Country Woman's club celebrated its 40th birthday Monday, Feb. 5. The club room was artistically decorated with iris and quince blossoms for the occasion and an arrangement in orchid tints on the piano.

Preceding the program a regular business meeting was conducted, Mrs. Carl Field presiding. A report on business transacted at the meet of the County Federation of clubs on Jan. 26 was given by Mrs. Eva Grattan. Mrs. Eliza Jeffers read the by-laws of the club, for the benefit of all new members.

Mrs. Ida C. Price, first president of the club, was introduced by chairman of the day Mrs. D. W. Clark. Mrs. Price gave an interesting and brief history of the club's origin, and some of the highlights of the characters of its founders. Her closing wish was that the next 40 years would see continued success for the club and this community. Mrs. Lillian Voge, another of the honorary members, was called on. Among her earliest memories of the club activities in this community were the sacrifices women had to make to carry on this noble work. A letter received from Mrs. B. J. Lopez wishing much success to the club was read by Mrs. Voge.

Miss Claire Booker, talented young violinist, played "Czardas," by Monti and "Stars In Your Eyes" by Kreisler, accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. Earl Booker.

Mrs. Percy W. McMillan entertained with many humorous musical numbers which were greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The committee helping the chairman included Mesdames Earl Booker, David Rutherford, C. P. Klassen, W. I. Merrill, and J. B. Strong.

Mrs. Jessie Shelley urged all to give as much time as possible to Red Cross sewing. There is a crying need for a great number of laprobes.

William W. Brown Hurt In Belgium

On Jan. 30 Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Brown received a telegram from the government stating that their son, Pvt. William Wesley Brown, was injured on January 14 in Belgium. Brown had returned to duty on December 19 from a previous wound.

They have since received a V-mail letter from their son, dated January 23, in England, from which the following has been taken:

"I guess you will be surprised to hear that I am here in England again. I am in the hospital with frozen feet, but don't worry; I don't think it is too bad, but the doctors say I will be laid up for a long time. They say time alone is about all that cures it. My left foot isn't so bad, but my right one is in fairly bad shape.

"I got my feet frozen in Belgium. It was sure cold there and we were out in it day and night. I was in that big battle there at the breakthrough. We fought there over two weeks and it sure was rough, too, believe me. I'm glad to be back here again. . . . I guess my infantry days are over now."

Wesley is in his fourth year of service in the army.

A warning has been issued to be on the lookout for a man, believed to be heading west who is passing counterfeit government checks. He is described as an American, white, about 35, 5 feet 8 to 10 inches, 150 pounds, dark brown hair, very nervous. Notify U. S. Secret Service, San Francisco. EXbrook 2160.

Mrs. T. F. Rogers will be chairman on Feb. 19, the next Red Cross day. All members are urged to attend, bringing their sewing equipment.

JOHN CHURCH IS SUMMONED

By R. H. K.

Occasionally there passes this way a great man, a man who is great through his own unassuming simplicity; a man who works hard and diligently all his life, with no thought of reward, and no expectation of signal recognition. Briefly, a man who goes his way cheerfully, with a smile for friend and stranger alike.

Such a man was John Church. A resident of Campbell for the past 12 years, John lived with his sister, Mrs. Hattie Baugh, of North First street. Doing his job, communing with his friends, and helping the neighbors, was his satisfactory life here.

Church died very suddenly at his home last evening of a heart attack. He was 65 years of age, and had worked for the Standard Oil Company in Richmond for many years before coming to Campbell to be with his sister. He was a native of Truckee, California. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Baugh, and Mrs. May Turner of Sacramento.

Funeral notice will appear in the San Jose papers.

We are happy to report that Kerry Levenberg, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. (Bud) Levenberg who was seriously ill with pneumonia in O'Connor sanitarium is rapidly recuperating at home.

High P.-T. A. to Observe Founders' Day February 14

On February 14, Founders' Day will be observed in Campbell high and grammar schools P.-T. A.s Both organizations meet jointly each year and both participate in the program. This year the program will be held in the Campbell grammar school auditorium at 2:30 p.m. A feature of the day will be a short play, "Burn, Candle, Burn", directed by Mrs. Rex K. Fuller. Both P.T.A. presidents, Mrs. Clarence Fagalde (high school) and Mrs. Walter Williams (grammar school) will preside. Several past presidents of both P.-T. A.s will be present as honored guests. Life memberships will be presented. The presidents request all chairmen to present any bills at this meeting which they have incurred during the year.

Nominating committees will be elected. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Ed Benech is Founders' Day Chairman for the high school unit, and Mrs. LBen Howard is Founders' Day chairman for the grammar school.

Preceding the meeting, the executive boards will meet at 1:30 at the grammar school. All members are urged to attend this important program.

I. G. Adams who has been with the P. G. & E. for 46 years is retiring and T. W. Snell who has been manager of the Coast Valleys division will succeed him as manager of the San Jose division.

MANY NAMES ON CAMPBELL HONOR ROLL

The names of service men and women that have been listed with the American Legion to appear on the Campbell Honor Roll will be published in this and succeeding issues. Any reader knowing a name that is not on the list, is asked to report it to a member of the post or at Clark's drug store.

AN APPRECIATION

The Campbell branch of the San Jose Chapter American Red Cross wishes to express its gratitude and appreciation to Mrs. B. O. Curry for the use of the rooms in the Curry Building where surgical dressings have been made from October, 1943, to February 1, 1945. Through Mrs. Curry's generousity the rooms will continue to be used by the Red Cross for sewing.

THE VOTERS SAID "NO!"

It is characteristic of faddists and pressure groups, with axes to grind, that they seldom take "No" for an answer when the people turn down their pet projects. On the apparent assumption that the voters have short memories, they simply wait a few months —or a few years, if they have suffered a disastrous defeat—and then trot out their schemes again in the hope that their dog-eared proposals will slip by while public interest is absorbed in other issues.

California has a current example of this never-say-die trait of pressure groups in the reappearance in the Legislature at this session of the badly-discredited Garrison Revenue Bond Act, which the State's voters defeated in 1938 by a thumping majority of nearly a million votes.

Few acts submitted to California voters ever have been so badly beaten, or so generally repudiated, as this easy-debt proposal, which was designed to open the floodgates of public spending through abolition of the constitutional guarantees against floating unsound and unlimited bond issues. The Garrison Act was rejected in every county in the State, with a single exception, by ratios running from 2 to 1 to 3 and 4 to 1, and by a total "No" margin of 941,250 votes. Yet the same old act now has been resubmitted to the Legislature, only after the people turned it down with such emphasis.

The 1945 version of the 1938 act has a new name; it is now called the Carter Bond Revenue Act—but its principal provisions, seeking to repeal the constitutional requirements of a two-thirds majority to authorize bond issues, is unchanged. The new act, like the old, is intended to make it easier for promoters of revenue bond projects to plunge cities, counties and districts into debt, as only a simple majority vote would be required for such projects, if the act became law.

It is hoped the legislators will remember the mandate they have from the people on this issue. The voters said "No"—and we don't believe they are in any mood to change that verdict.

THEY CAN'T FIGHT COLD AND NAZIS, TOO!

The people at home seldom speak in the voice of anger, being more apt to overlook official mistakes and hope for the best. But today we speak in such a voice —for everybody, we believe, on the home front.

Signed stories by reliable newsmen with the American forces on the German front tell of the grossly inadequate clothing issued our men fighting in the freezing weather of that area, and of the suffering occasioned by such lack.

"The doughboy, asked to fight the war under terrible winter conditions, is simply not equipped to meet it," says one correspondent, describing frozen clothes and shoes soaked through. In a dispatch to the Chicago Daily News, Jack Bell writes of the sufferings of "thousands of soldiers hobbling on frozen feet."

Proper equipment to withstand the cold winter fighting has helped carry the Russian soldier across the freezing steppes and onto German Soil. Inconsistant as it seems, even the Nazi soldier is better clothed today than the American!

The feeling here at home does not end with heartsick sympathy for our boys fighting so magnificiently under such cruel handicap. We know that Army supply chiefs labor under handicaps, too. But we feel that this situation is utterly unnecessary and must be corrected at once.

Any American at home would gladly go shivering through the rest of the war without quite enough clothing to keep him cosily warm, if it would spare our boys the additional burden of fighting to keep from freezing while fighting the enemy. If there is anything the home front can do to help, let us be told! But by any means whatsoever, let our offices of supply replace those light gloves, thin trousers and leaky shoes with winter gear to keep our fighting men decently warm. And let them do it now!

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

"Public sentiment is everything. With public sentiment nothing can fail; without it nothing can succeed. Consequently, he who molds public sentiment goes deeper than he who enacts statutes or pronounces decisions. He makes statutes and decisions possible or impossible to execute."

— ABRAHAM LINCOLN

When the immortal Lincoln spoke those works, the United States was torn by Civil War—the very existance of our country threatened by bitter differences among our people.

Yet Abraham Lincoln, though he was President of the United States, clothed with all the power of his high office, knew that in the final analysis the American people, rather than the President or the Congress, would determine whether we came out of the cataclysm divided and weak, or whetheer we survived as a great Nation.

A true believer in democracy, he could say without loss of dignity—"Public sentiment is everything; without it nothing can succeed." And a vital part of Lincoln's great wisdom was that he never under-estimated, nor ignored, the town hall leaders or the cracker barrel philosophers of his day, the moulders of public opinion who were close to the people. When there were bitter rifts in the national capital; when he had doubt, perhaps, as to which way to turn—Lincoln turned to the people for help and guidance. And in the end the people turned to Lincoln for leadership, because he had earned their trust and was responsive to their will.

As we commemorate the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday this year, it would be well if our leaders in Washington would be guided by the example of The Great Emancipator. Never was there a time in our country's history when it was more important that mutual confidence should exist between the people and their representatives. Never was there a time when molders of public opinion—whether they be preachers or teachers, publishers or public officials, business men or labor leaders—owed such a vital responsibility to the Natioon to use their influence for the welfare of the country and humanity.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

There are few, if any, obser vances during the year in which the American people share more enthusiastically than in Boy Scout Week which runs from February 8 to 14.

The Boy Scouts of America with their nearly two million members are one of the most potent forces in the Nation today in the fight against juvenile delinquency.

The training which our youths receive through this splendid organization turns their thoughts toward constructive lines and helps to develop a sound moral foundation on which to build their lives.

Probably one of the greatest benefits which the Boy Scout Movement is achieveing on behalf of humanity is the development of a genuine sense of tolerance among the rising generation. The spirit of fellowship enables boys of all nationalities to work together in unity regardless of class, race and creed.

America salutes her Boy Scouts.

Large Reserve of Surgical Dressings by Red Cross

The quota of surgical dressings allotted to the San Jose chapter of the American Red Cross and its branches, of which Campbell is one, has this week been completed. In the two years and three months that this work has been going on, over half a million dressings have been made (572,000).

Due to the foresight in planning of the Surgeon General of the United States Army more than two years ago, a large reserve has been built up, so that supplies are now adequate for present needs.

Campbell Branch working thru the San Jose chapter has maintained a unit which thruout the past twenty months has consistantly met three times a week, making approximately 50,000 dressings large and small.

Those who have been in charge wish to take this opportunity to thank the women who have given so many hours of patient effort. Without their faithful assistance this work could not have been accomplished.

The surgical dressing rooms will be open Monday afternoon, February 12, from 2 to 5, and those who have uniforms there may call for them then.

Youth Council Meet Monday

Chairman Herbert Shadle will call a meeting of the local youth council to order at 7:30 p. m. in the little theater of the high school Monday night.

All cooperating organizations are urged to have representatives present.

Under discussion will be plans for the summer program, solution to some of the problems which will arise in organizing the personnel and program for the nursery and the playground program, as well as an increasingly effective program at the youth center.

Memorial Lunch for S. B. Anthony

The National Woman's Party of California is holding a Memorial luncheon in honor of Susan B. Anthony's birthday at the Y. W. C. A. in San Francisco, Thursday, February 15, at 12:30.

There will be several noted speakers and a display of interesting posters and souvenires of early suffrage campaigns, and letters and photographs of Miss Anthony.

Local women who have been invited as honor guests are Mrs. Sara Bard Field of Los Gatos, Miss Agnes B. Howe and Mrs. Bertha M. Rice of San Jose.

During a battle in World War 1, vital mititary information was conveyed from one command to another by two Piute Indians speaking their native language over the telephone.

THE BOOK MARK

by marty

"GREAT SON" by Edna Ferber.

Miss Ferber admits frankly that this work definitely should have been one of those 1800 word jobs, covering a period which is seething in historical romance. "This book," she says, "should have been a trilogy....." but the vast dimensions of her subject so baffled her that she decided to ...."attack with a slingshot... Here, in capsule form, is that which should have been a lavish and prodigal feast."

Using the Ferber 'slingshot' of imaginative, story-telling talent, the author has stuffed that capsule to the breaking point with local interest, real and powerful characterization, love and hate, determination and human force of will.

The scene is Seattle from village to skyscraper city; the Alaska gold fields. The time is 1851 to 1941. The subject is four generations of the lively and interesting Melendys—a frontier family grown rich and ill at ease. There is Madam Exact Melendy, who at ninety-two, still is the clear-eyed, sharp-tongued matriarch of her family and city. The central character of the tale is her son, Vaughn Melendy, who mined the family fortune in Alaska where he met the only woman he truly loved. Emmy Melendy, his wife, the prim little housekeeper, Vaughn did not love. It was Pansy Deleath, violet-eyed dancer in the Yukon who fell in love with Vaughn, bore his child and came to live in a small house below the Melendy mansion.

There are other people in this book who also play an important part in the fulfillment of the plot. But why give away all the secrets of interest and suspense. In the 280 pages there are as many thrills.

A Council Fire was held by the Tanda Camp Fire Group during their meeting on February first. The patriotic motif was followed, with red, white and blue candles used in the candle lighting ceremony. Trail seeker pins were given to nine of the girls who passed that rank last school year.

Refreshments were made and served by Margaret Robertson, Gayle Schrader, Joan Sanders and Bobby Enochs, with Margaret Robertson chairman. The girls played games and danced afterward.

Orchard City Grange

In Orchard City Grange lecture hour, next Tuesday evening, February 13, Miss Louise Merrihew, of Los Gatos, will give one of her popular demonstrations of trained dogs for the blind, using dogs and blind persons from her own school.

Another feature in the lecture hour will be a string quintette from the eighth grade of Campbell Union Grammar school. The players will be Marilyn Booker, Jean Smith, Patsy Mathews, Jeannette Gomes and Dan Knowles.

At the last regular meeting, with J. C. Gordon, Master, presiding, standing committees for 1945 were appointed. In the lecture hour Miss Marcelene Benech pleased with several numbers on the piano. Jack Bond and H. E. Darby, new owners of the Elliott Nursery, Los Gatos, showed motion pictures in natural colors of seed gardens in Lompoc valley.

The regular meeting next Tuesday evening will begin at 7:30. The lecture hour, to which the general public is invited, will begin at 8:30.

Odd Fellows Feted by Ada Rebekah Lodge

Ada Rebekah lodge entertained the Odd Fellows and their families with a 6:30 pot luck supper Tuesday, February 6, which was enjoyed by all present. Lodge convened at 8:00 with Helen Rice, Noble Grand presiding. The committee for the evening was Eva Dahl, Thelma Hansen, Virginia Currie, Arlene Murdock, Jack Murdock, A. C. Currie and Julius Bachman. A drill practice is called for 1 o'clock Monday, February 12. All officers and degree staff are requested to be present.

The Past Noble Grands club met at the home of Mrs. Hancock, with Lilly Carney hostess, January 25. The next club meeting will be February 15, at the home of June Rice, with Mary Brown hostess. The next regular lodge meeting will be February 20, when Edith Galup, district deputy president, will make her official visit. The Past Noble Grand club will have charge of the meeting, with Carrie Silver, Theresa Brydon, Lena Robinson, June Rice and Harry Silver serving on the committees. All Rebekahs are invited.

Ceiling Prices Set On Used Commodities

Ceiling prices have been set on the following articles:

The prices of these articles are controlled at all levels of trade, including sales by an individual to an individual.

Before the sale of any of the commodities listed it is advisable for the seller to call or write his War Price and Rationing Board concerning the proper dollar-and-cents ceiling price.

There are 6, 846, 000 more persons employed in manufacturing in the United States in 1943 than in 1939.

Cows with free access to water produce 6.14 per cent more milk and 12.12 per cent more butterfat than those whose water intake is limited.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NOTES

J. H. BENNETT, Pastor

9:45 a.m. Sunday school.

11 a.m. Morning Service.

Sunday morning the Scouts and Cubs of the church will assemble for worship. Parents are asked to attend to make this Scout Sunday a memorable time. The Campbell Congregational church has been working with the Scout and Cub movement for over 17 years. Troop 28 and Cub Pack No. 1 were originally sponsored by the church and in recent years Scout Troop 31 and Cub Pack No. 9. In the past few months over $1200 has been spent in preparing special accommodations for this particular work.

On Feb. 16 at the church a district rally will be held of the Pilgrim Fellowship of Youth. Campbell will be the host church. Dinner at 6:30 p. m. to be followed by a special program. About 80 young people are expected to attend.

On Feb. 14 the religious education program will begin in Campbell at the Methodist and Congregational churches. Parents are asked to send their children to one of them. Miss Ruby Anderson and the Rev. Bennett will conduct the work at the Congregational church.

Pfc. Jack Vitale Gets Citation

Private First Class Jack A. Vitale, son of Mrs. Rose Vitale, 33 Dillon avenue, has been cited by the 361st Infantry Regiment of the 91st "Powder River" Division and awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for actual participation in combat against the enemy with the Fifth Army in Italy.

Standards for the badge are high. The decoration is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth," (John 4:24). This is the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Spirit" to be read Sunday, February 11.

A Bible citation included in the sermon is I Peter 1:22, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethern, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently", and a correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, (p. 241).

Religious Classes To Start Soon

Under the provisions made by the state legislature the Methodist and Congregational churches will begin classes in religious education on next Wednesday, Feb. 14. Children who have the written permission of their parents will be released for one hour each week from the grammar school and may attend the classes provided by the local churches.

Rev. J. H. Bennett and Rev. Donald H. Baldwin and the committees on released time in each of the churches have been working on the program and parents may receive further information by calling the ministers or the Campbell grammar school.

Geo. W. Friday Is Summoned

A heart attack resulted in death for George W. Friday of 78 E. Rincon avenue while he was in the Anglo-California National bank in San Jose Saturday.

Deceased was a native of Wisconsin, 62 years of age. He came to Campbell about two years ago, from Hood River, Oregon, where he had been an apple grower for 33 years.

He is survived by his wife Florence Friday, sons, Norman Friday of Vancouver, Wash., and Frederick Friday of Glendale, two sisters and five brothers.

He was a member of the Campbell Methodist church, and of the Orchard City Grange.

Rev. Donald H. Baldwin conducted the funeral rites Monday afternoon from the Methodist church, under direction of the Rutherford funeral home.

Interment was in Oak Hill Memorial park.

T/Sgt. Harold E. Shelley. of Rt. 1, Box 167, Campbell, received his most welcome Christmas gift of the year when on the morning of December 25, the veteran light bomb group to which he belongs received offical orders awarding it a War Department Citation, the highest organizational honor bestowed by the U. S. Army.

The award, which entitles Sgt. Shelley to wear the Distinguished Unit Badge, over his right blouse pocket, was granted in recognition of outstanding services rendered by the 47th Bombardment Group on February 22, 1943 at Kasserine Pass, where the Allied positions overrun by the enemy, A -20 Havocs of the Group repeatedly drove home strafing and bombing attacks through rain, fog and complete overcast and finally brought about an enemy retreat through the Pass, thus saving the Allied holdings in Algeria and Tunisia.

Great credit goes to both air and ground personnel. While valiant airmen were attacking at low-level, thru almost sucidal flying conditions, the Group's maintenance and administrative men were working under primitive living conditions on the barren plains of Tunisia and undergoing frequent enemy bombing and strafing attacks.

Sgt. Shelley went overseas in September 1942. He has been with the 47th Bombardment Group since July, 1942.

The United States' cotton acreage dropped from 21,579,000 acres in 1926 to 11,439,000 acres in 1943.

Twenty per cent of the country's automobile dealers have closed or gone out of business during the war.

For Rent: 3 room furnished house, in rear. Adults only. Between Campbell and Los Gatos. Rt. 2, Box 387, W. Parr Ave. Phone Campbell 3764.

A New Home Scrap Book Becomes a Happy Hobby

Of course, it is a dream house contained in a collection of ideas in an ever-fattening scrap book. But out of this scrap book some day the real home will be built free from regretful mistakes.

In this Home of Tomorrow mechanical servants will reduce the labors of housework to a minimum. In the laundry, for example, there will be an automatic washer, a clothes dryer, and an ironing machine. And in the kitchen, food will be stored and prepared and cooked by an assembly line of home appliances. And modern lighting will make the whole house cheerful and bright.

The important key to this home of modern 194x Living will be Adequate Wiring. That means plenty of circuits of large enough wire, with sufficient switches and plug-in outlets properly placed. Adequate Wiring, too, provides full power at all times for the most efficient, carefree and economical operation of lights and appliances.
